

Nathaniel Mendoza

Nathaniel Mendoza is Chief Security Officer and Senior Network Administrator at the University Of Texas Austin's Texas Advanced Computing Center (TACC). He leads a group of Security, Network, and Systems Administrators. Current work areas include Cloud Computing, High-Speed Networks, Operational Security, and Compliance. Additionally, he is a part of the XSEDE security group and has been a member of Super Computing's SCInet. Before joining TACC, he was the Chief Security Officer and Senior Network Engineer at the University of Tennessee Knoxville's National Institute for Computational Sciences (NICS).

